

OCOTAL

FATHER ROOSTER: Located RIGHT on the beach in Ocotal this classic restaurant still stands in basically the same spot as when it was built 100 years ago. Yes, it has obviously been renovated, but still has the feel of a true beach shack, with wood boards and all. Without a doubt, this locale is a MUST VISIT for anyone coming to the Papagayo. With tables and chairs stuck right into the sand, you can watch all the fishing boats, and snorkelers as you soak up the sun. Known for the BEST FISH TACOS and WORLD CLASS MARGARITAS, people flock for miles around to suck these puppies back. I personally adore the FILET MIGNON SHISKABOB and a fresh MOJITO for dinner, and I never pass up the chance for true FISH N CHIPS; with Malt Vinegar. YUMMY!!! Christina the owner is always there, so tell her I said Hi. ENJOY. You will not be disappointed, I promise. 1 ON MAP

PICANTE: You have to travel all the way through Ocotal and over the hill to Bahia Pez Vela resort, but it is worth the drive when you get there. Located inside the resort, this restaurant is just steps from one of the coolest little black sand beaches in the area. It overlooks the swimming pool and out to sea, and you can hear the waves crash as you eat. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. It has a wide variety of food on the menu, from Typical to Mexican, but my personal favorite is the Cashew Chicken. 3 ON MAP

OCOTAL RESORT: Quite possibly the greatest view ANYWHERE, this hotel literally hangs off the cliff. The views are 270 degrees of the Papagayo Bay. On a clear day you can see all the way to the Santa Rosa National Park and is a great platform for whale watching, at certain times of year. Perfect sunset spot. ENJOY. 2 ON MAP
